April 28, 2014

Final reports of interim study commissions are gradually appearing on the committee websites. Three of the reports I thought you might be interested in are on Common Core, Food Desert Zones and Education Innovation. Please click on the links below to view the full reports. As additional reports become available, I will forward them on to you.

Committee on Common Core State Standards
Legislative Research Commission's Committee on Food Desert Zones
House Study Committee of Education Innovation \(2013\)

For additional information, please go the North Carolina General Assembly's website, www.ncleg.net, and view the individual committee websites.

Have a great day!
